

SAMPLE STUDY DAY AGENDA

09:30	Welcome & expectations	Dick Cole
09:45	Vascular access: Preserving the lifeline for dialysis <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- So important yet such a challenge</li><li>- UKKA Guidelines</li></ul>	Julia McCarthy
11:00	A patient's perspective	William Withers
11.45	Use of plastic fistula needles	Julia McCarthy
12:00	Buttonhole technique: Derby experience	Liberty Berino
12:30	Canulation safety & safety needles	Steve Lane
12:35	Optimising monitoring & surveillance <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- How to monitor correctly</li><li>- How can we be sure it's done?</li></ul>	Alison Swain
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- How does surveillance differ from monitoring?</li><li>- What surveillance options are available today?</li></ul>	Julia McCarthy
13:00	Lunch
13:30	New surveillance innovation – Vasc Alert	Dick Cole/Deborah Brady
13:45	How ultrasound can help access preservation	Julia McCarthy
14:15	Safe needle removal	Julia McCarthy
14:25	MAGIC & introduction to new patient materials	Alison Swain
	An introduction to Fixed Rope Ladder technique
15:00	Ultrasound & cannulation workshop	All
16:10	Conclusion & follow-up actions	Deborah Brady
16:30	Meeting Close	